Part 1 Summary

The Constitution for the Conservation Board of the Cotswolds Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty ("the Board")

This Constitution sets out how the Board operates, how decisions are made and the procedures that are followed to ensure efficiency, transparency and accountability. Some of these processes are required by the rules under which the Board was established, while others are a matter for the Board to choose.

The first part of the Constitution is divided into the Articles that set out the basic principles of the Board's organisation. More detailed procedures and codes of practice are provided in the Appendices.

The Constitution builds upon the primary enabling legislation of the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000 (as amended by the Natural Environment and Rural Communities Act 2006), which provided the Board's purposes. It also builds upon the Board's Establishment Order (Statutory Instrument 1777/2004) (as amended by The Local Government (Structural Changes) (Miscellaneous Amendments and Other Provision) Order 2009 (SI 2009 No. 837)) which provided for the concurrent powers held with the local authorities, operational details over the running of the Board and led to the formal establishment of the Board in December 2004.

How the Board operates

The Board is an independent body composed of a maximum of thirty-seven voting Members. The Secretary of State, the local authorities and parish councils each appoint an allocation or group of Members.

It is the Board's duty, in exercising its functions, to have regard to two purposes:

- a) conserving and enhancing the natural beauty of the Cotswolds Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (Cotswolds AONB), and
- b) increasing the understanding and enjoyment by the public of the special qualities of the Cotswolds AONB.

If there is conflict between these purposes, the Board must attach more weight to conserving and enhancing the AONB.

The Board should also seek to foster the economic and social well-being of the AONB's local communities. In doing so, the Board must co-operate with local authorities and public bodies whose functions include the promotion of economic or social development within the Cotswolds AONB.

The Board is a Non-Departmental Public Body funded principally by Government grant distributed by the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (DEFRA) and by contributions from constituent local authorities.

Members have adopted agreed roles and functions for all Members and follow a code of conduct to ensure high standards in the way they undertake their duties. Arrangements are in place for the investigation and determination of complaints about Members' conduct.

All Members meet together as the Board. Meetings of the Board are normally open to the public. Here, Members decide the Board's overall policies, set the budget each year and approve the Board's main plans.

How decisions are made

Recommendations are made to the Board on policies, the budget and the main plans by the relevant officers. The Finance and Governance Committee provides assurance to the Board and recommendations on matters of finance and governance.

An Executive Committee, made up of 10 Board Members is led by the Chair of the Board. The Executive Committee is responsible for supporting the Board's operational activities and acting as the decision making body for the various working and steering groups.

Day to day decisions are made by the senior officers, the Chair, Vice Chair and Executive Committee under delegated authority from the Board. Meetings of the Board and Executive Committee are publicised well in advance and are open to the public except where personal or confidential matters are being discussed.

The Board's Staff

The Board employs staff to lead the operation and development of the Board, provide advice, implement decisions and manage the day-to-day delivery of its services.

People's Rights

The Board seeks to foster inclusive involvement in its activities by local people, visitors and anyone with an interest in furthering its aims. The Board welcomes feedback about its decisions and activities.

Part 2

Articles of the Constitution

Introduction - The Constitution

The Constitution

This Constitution, and all its appendices, is the Constitution of the Conservation Board for the Cotswolds Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (“the Board”).

Purpose of the Constitution

The purpose of the Constitution is to:

- a) enable the Board to exercise its duties, powers and functions to the benefit of the Cotswolds Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty;
- b) enable decisions to be taken efficiently, effectively and transparently, with due regard to probity and equity;
- c) ensure that those responsible for decision-making are clearly identifiable to the public and that they explain the reasons for decisions;
- d) ensure that high standards of probity and ethics are evident in decision-making and all activities of the Board;
- e) act as a signpost to rules and regulations that apply to the Board (e.g. Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000, Natural Environment and Rural Communities Act 2006, Establishment Order (SI 1777/2004), other legislation).

Interpretation and Review of the Constitution

Where the Constitution permits the Board to choose between different courses of action, the Board will always choose the course which in its opinion best fits its statutory purposes as set out in the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000 (as amended by the Natural Environment and Rural Communities Act 2006) and the Establishment Order SI 1777/2004.

The Board will monitor and evaluate the operation of the Constitution as set out in Article 12.

Article 1 - The Board – Purposes, Duties, Powers and Functions

1.01 Founding Legislation

The Conservation Board for the Cotswolds AONB was set up by the Secretary of State under the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000 (the 2000 Act) (as amended by the Natural Environment and Rural Communities Act 2006) and the subsequent Establishment Order, SI1777/2004 (the Order), as amended by SI490/2008 in respect of structural changes to Wiltshire councils and SI1579/2009 in relation to Retirement Benefits.

The Board will exercise all its duties and powers in accordance with the 2000 Act and the Order.

1.02 Purposes and Duties of the Board

The Board has two statutory purposes:

- a) to conserve and enhance the natural beauty¹ of the Cotswolds Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (Cotswolds AONB), and
- b) to increase the understanding and enjoyment of the special qualities of the Cotswolds AONB.

If there is conflict between these purposes, the Board shall attach more weight to conserving and enhancing the AONB (the “Sandford” principle).

In pursuing its purposes, the Board has a duty to seek to foster the social and economic well-being of local communities in the AONB.

1.03 Powers of the Board

The powers of the Board include anything which, in the opinion of the Board, is calculated to facilitate, or is conducive or incidental to:

- a) the accomplishment of the purposes set out above, or
- b) the carrying out of any function conferred on it by the 2000 Act, the Order or any other legislation.

The powers do not include:

- the power to do anything in contravention of any restriction imposed by the 2000 Act, or
- power to raise money (whether by borrowing or otherwise) in a manner which is not authorised apart from in relation to its purposes or functions.

The Board does not have powers to make and distribute profits.

1.04 Functions of the Board

The Board is required to periodically prepare and publish a Management Plan which formulates its policy for the management of the Cotswolds AONB and for the carrying out of its functions. This must be reviewed at intervals of not more than five years.

The current Plan can be located on the organisation’s website.

The 2000 Act also sets out requirements for notification and consultation on changes to the Plan.

Further specific functions which can be transferred from or shared with a local authority to the Board are set out in Part III of the Order.

The Board does not have development plan and development control powers. It is a statutory consultee for National Infrastructure Projects.

1.05 Dissolving the Board

Section 86(8) of the 2000 Act enables an Establishment Order to be revoked by the Secretary of State. If the Board considers that a Conservation Board is no longer the best way of managing the Cotswolds AONB and Natural England and a majority of constituent local authorities agree, the Secretary of State would consider revoking the Order. In the event that the Board is wound up, the property, rights and liabilities of the Board will be transferred in accordance with the Order of the Secretary of State under Section 88(8) of the Act.

1.06 Amending the Establishment Order

Section 86(8) of the 2000 Act enables the Secretary of State to amend an Establishment Order. Normally the Secretary of State would not expect to amend an Order unless to make provisions for unforeseen or new issues that the Board otherwise has no means of addressing.

Article 2 - Membership of the Board

In the event of a tie, a second ballot for the tied candidates shall be conducted in the same way as the first ballot. 14. MINUTES

14.1 Signing the minutes

The Chair will sign the minutes of the proceedings (including confidential minutes) at the next suitable meeting. The Chair will move that the minutes of the previous meeting be signed as a correct record. The only part of the minutes that can be discussed is their accuracy.

When the minutes have been signed, Members may ask questions to ascertain what progress has been made on a particular matter referred to in the minutes, but not make any other statement or generate discussion on the minutes.

14.2 No requirement to sign minutes of previous meeting at Extraordinary Meeting

Where in relation to any meeting, the next meeting for the purpose of signing the minutes is a meeting called under paragraph 3 of Schedule 12 to the Local Government Act 1972 (an Extraordinary Meeting), then the next following meeting (being a meeting called otherwise than under that paragraph) will be treated as a suitable meeting for the purposes of paragraph 41(1) and (2) of schedule 12 relating to signing of minutes.

14.3 Form of minutes

Minutes will contain all motions and amendments in the exact form and order the Chair put them.

(The minutes of proceedings when the meeting was not open to the public or which disclose exempt or confidential information may not be made available to the public but a summary of the proceedings will be made available where the minutes open to inspection do not provide a reasonably fair and coherent record - See the Access to Information Procedure Rules).

17.1 When a Member may speak

Members shall indicate to the Chair, Vice Chair or the Chief Executive Officer that they wish to speak. The Vice Chair and the Chief Executive Officer shall assist the Chair to identify those who have so indicated. The Chair shall invite Members to speak at the Chair's discretion.

This includes filming as well as audio-recording, and photography is also permitted.

At the start of a meeting, the Chair will enquire if anyone present intends to record /film proceedings (although desirable, it is not a legal requirement for an attendee to notify the Board of an intention to record/film).

Any recording/filming must not be disruptive or distracting to the good order and conduct of the meeting; and 'roaming' around the venue while recording/filming is not permitted. The Chair will exclude anyone whose behaviour is disruptive.

Any recording/filming should only be of Members and Board Officers, and not any Members of the public (unless they are formally addressing the meeting or unless specific permission has been given by those individuals).

If an individual decides to reproduce any of the recording/filming, the recording/filming must not be edited in any way that could lead to misinterpretation of the proceedings. This includes not editing any image or views expressed in a way that may ridicule or show a lack of respect towards those being recorded/filmed.

In order to protect the interests of Members and Officers, and any other person addressing the Board's meetings, in case individuals do not record/film proceedings for 'genuine' purposes and/or seek to abuse any potential entitlement by editing and re-publishing extracts so that they do not accurately reflect what has actually occurred at a meeting, the Board may make its own recording (audio and/or visual) of proceedings.

20. PETITIONS

Any petition or similar communication received by a Member or the Chief Executive Officer should first be presented formally to the next meeting of the Board for subsequent consideration by the Member or Chief Executive Officer.

The principal vehicles for approving and stating the Board’s Budget and Policy Framework are the 3-Year Business Plan Framework and the Annual Work Programme.

The process by which the 3-Year Business Plan Framework and Annual Work Programme shall be developed will be proposed by the Chief Executive Officer, with support from the relevant Committee and then approved by the Board.

- (a) In approving the 3-Year Business Plan Framework and Annual Work Programme, the Board will also specify the extent of virement within the Budget and degree of in-year changes which may be undertaken by the Finance and Governance Committee. As public office holders, Members' and Officers' actions are governed by the principles set out in the Codes of Conduct (see Appendix 4) and by the key principles of public life:

1. KEY PRINCIPLES OF PUBLIC LIFE

The key principles upon which this Code of Conduct is based and which Members are expected to observe are the Seven Principles of Public Life². These principles should inform all actions and decisions:

Selflessness: Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.

Integrity: Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships.

² <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/the-7-principles-of-public-life>

Objectivity: Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.

Accountability: Holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.

Openness: Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing.

Honesty: Holders of public office should be truthful.

Leadership: Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.

Introduction

The Officer Code of Conduct is intended to lay down guidelines which will help maintain and improve standards and protect employees from misunderstanding or criticism. An Employee Handbook is made available to all employees and if an employee considers that they may breach the Code or policies laid out in the Handbook they should seek guidance from the Chief Executive Officer at the earliest opportunity. The over-riding principle is that if in doubt, ask. Instances where the Code or policies are broken will be investigated and appropriate action taken. This need not involve the use of the Board's Disciplinary Procedure and will depend on the individual circumstances of the case.

Part 5 Members' Allowances

Members are entitled to allowances as laid out in Appendix 5. Allowances shall be reviewed annually by Finance and Governance Committee.

2.1 Board Member

1. The Conservation Board's Purposes and Duty

The Cotswolds Conservation Board was established by Parliament in 2004, became fully operational in 2005 and has two statutory purposes:

- to conserve and enhance the natural beauty of the Cotswolds Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB)
- to increase the understanding and enjoyment of the special qualities of the AONB

In fulfilling these purposes, the Board has a duty to seek to foster the social and economic well-being of local communities in the AONB.

2. Appointment or Election of Board Members

Arrangements for the appointment of Board Members are set out in the Board's Establishment Order.

3. The Board's Composition

The Board has a maximum of 37 voting Members: 15 appointed by local authorities, 14 appointed by the Secretary of State and 8 appointed by Parish Councils and Parish Meetings.

Board Members are appointed as individuals to the Board. While they may be appointed by a local authority or nominated by an organisation, they are not appointed to the Board to represent that authority or organisation. The Membership of the Board is constructed so that both local and national interests are reflected in its make-up. All Board Members are collectively responsible for decisions and should apply policies consistently. Whilst Board Members are drawn from three groups or sectors they work and act as one Board.

4. Roles and Functions of all Board Members

The Board can only achieve its purposes effectively if its decisions take full account of the statutory purposes of the Board, balance local and national needs and lead to realistic actions.

Main Roles:

- To guide the management of the Conservation Board so that it achieves its two purposes and in doing so helps deliver its duty.
- To guide the management of the Cotswolds AONB so that it delivers wide benefits to its local communities and the nation.

Main Functions:

- a) To be an ambassador for the Conservation Board and its ambitions and policies at the local, national or international level;
- b) To champion the Board as an effective mechanism for the conservation and enhancement of the area's natural beauty, increasing public understanding and enjoyment of its special qualities, and maintaining the social and economic well-being of local communities;
- c) To champion the Board's Management plan, policies, advice and guidance, programmes and grants within their own individual networks;
- d) To be collectively responsible for decisions and contribute towards the overall strategic direction of the Conservation Board and management of the AONB through the development of policy, the management plan and business plan 3;
- e) To collectively participate in the development of policy direction, strategic thinking and innovation within the Conservation Board;
- f) To influence the Board to help it come to informed and balanced decisions, contributing knowledge, skills and advice from the local, regional and national perspective;
- g) To work with Members, staff and stakeholders to apply the purposes of the Conservation Board and the principles of sustainable development to all decision-making;
- h) To approve and monitor the implementation and achievement of the Board's ambitions, policies and programmes;
- i) To challenge internal and external proposals that exceed or go against the statutory purposes of the Board and the purposes of the designation of the AONB;
- j) To promote the profile and effectiveness of the family of Protected Landscapes (AONBs, National Parks and Heritage Coasts) through the work of the Conservation Board, co-operative action such as peer support and review, and co-operation with the work of DEFRA, Natural England, the National Association of AONBs (NAAONB), National Parks England (NPE), the Association of National Park Authorities (ANPA) and Europarc.

Terms and Conditions

5. The Board's Constitution

The enabling legislation that provided for the establishment of Conservation Boards and defined their purposes and duty was the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000. The Board's structure and functions were defined through its own Parliamentary Establishment Order (2004/1777).

³ Note: A Member's role is to be strategic and not to micro-manage the Conservation Board. Staff are employed to run the business of the Conservation Board, but performance information needs to be available so that Members can be certain that the Conservation Board is delivering against its approved plans.

The Board has its own Constitution which sets out how the Board operates, how decisions are made and the procedures that are followed to ensure efficiency, transparency and accountability. Board Members are expected to be familiar with the Conservation Board's legislative framework.

6. Time Commitment

It is envisaged that Members will spend one day per month for the Board, although this time commitment may increase if Members stand for election and are appointed to the Board's Executive Committee, one of the Working Groups or other committees or officially represents the Board on an external body.

Board Members are expected to attend and contribute to regular meetings of the Board, preparing fully in advance of each meeting through reading any papers or briefing material provided.

7. Operational Base

The Board's base will be the organisation's primary administration office. The main Board meetings are usually held in the Council Chamber at Cotswold District Council's offices in Cirencester. The majority of Executive Committee and Working Group meetings are held at the Board's administration offices.

8. Conduct

Board Members will at all times maintain the highest standards of conduct and ethics, and show respect for fellow Members, staff and the community. A Members' Code of Conduct has been adopted by the Board in accordance with the Localism Act 2011.

Board Members are required to follow the "Seven Principles of Public Life" set out by the Committee on Standards in Public Life (Part 4 Section 1). It is essential that Members are, and are seen to be, honest, objective and impartial in the exercise of your duties. Members should not allow their judgement or integrity to be compromised or permit there to arise any reasonable grounds for suspicion as to the compromise of their judgment and integrity.

Board Members will have such rights of access to such documents, information, land and buildings of the Board as are necessary for the proper discharge of their functions and in accordance with the law. The Chief Executive may refuse inspection of documents where the documents are, or in the event of legal proceedings would be, protected by privilege arising out of a solicitor and client relationship or are commercially confidential such that harm would occur.

Board Members will not make public information which is confidential or exempt without the consent of the Board or divulge information given in confidence to anyone other than a Board Member or Officer entitled to know it. For these purposes, "confidential" and "exempt" information are defined in the Access to Information Procedure Rules in Part 3 of the Constitution.

Board Members should not speak on behalf of the Board on matters of media interest unless using an approved statement or with approval in advance from the Chief Executive, Communications Officer or Chair.

9. Conflicts of Interest

A Board Member should ensure that no conflict arises, or could reasonably be perceived to arise between their public duties and their private interests – financial or otherwise.

The Board is required to maintain and update a Register of Interests of its Members within 28 days of a change. The Register is available for public inspection. Details of the Register are set out in the Members' Code of Conduct in the Constitution.

Board Members are expected to declare any personal, prejudicial or business interests which may, or may be perceived to, conflict with their public duties or influence their judgement in performing their functions. Members must ensure that entries in the Register of Interests are kept up to date. Should a particular matter give rise to a conflict of interest they are required to follow the Board's rules on disclosure of interests and possible withdrawal from the matter.

10. Allowances

The determination of allowances and other benefits for Board Members is governed by the Local Authorities (Members Allowances) (England) Regulations 2003 (SI 2003/1021).

The Board will review and agree its Scheme of Members' Allowances on an annual basis, determining the types and levels of financial allowances and/or expenses to enable Board Members to participate fully in Board activities while being sufficiently economical to avoid damaging the Board's activities or becoming a financial reward for Members.

11. Gifts and hospitality

No gifts or hospitality should be accepted which might, or might reasonably appear to, compromise the Member's personal judgement or integrity or place them under an improper obligation or bring the Board into disrepute. Members are expected to comply with the Board's Constitution on the acceptance of gifts and hospitality. All gifts over £25 should be declared and none should be canvassed or requested.

12. Disqualification of Members

A person is disqualified from becoming or remaining a Member of the Board if they hold any paid office or employment, appointments to which are, or may be, made or confirmed by:

- g) Any person himself holding an office or employment which disqualifies him from becoming a Member of the Board.

A person is also disqualified from becoming or remaining a Member of the Board if they hold any employment in a company which would be under the control of the Board. Proceedings for disqualification are set out in the Order and the Local Government Act 1972, Section 92.

13. Vacation of office for failure to attend meetings

If a Member of the Board fails throughout a period of twelve months from the date of their last attendance to attend any meeting of the Board, its committee, sub-committee, joint committee or any advisory body or meeting, they shall, unless the failure was due to some reason approved by the Board before the expiry of that period, cease to be a Member of the Board.

14. Politically Restricted Posts

Section 13 (4) of the Establishment Order and Sections 1 to 3 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 provide that a person shall be disqualified from becoming or remaining a Member of the Board if they hold a politically restricted post under the Board or any other local authority in Great Britain. A. MEMBERS' CODE OF CONDUCT

As a public office holder, Members' behaviour and actions are governed by the principles set out in this Code of Conduct and by the seven Key Principles of Public Life. It is the Member's responsibility to ensure that they are familiar with, and comply with, all the relevant provisions of the Code.

1. GENERAL CONDUCT

In carrying out services for the Board, Members are expected in each of the following sections to:

Use of Public Funds⁴

- 1.1 have a duty to ensure the safeguarding of public funds⁵ and the proper custody of assets which have been publicly funded.
- 1.2 carry out these obligations responsibly – that is, take appropriate measures to ensure that the body uses resources efficiently, economically and effectively, avoiding waste and extravagance. It will always be an improper use of public funds for public bodies to employ consultants or other companies to lobby Parliament, Government or political parties.

Allowances

- 1.3 comply with the rules set by the board and the public body regarding remuneration, allowances and expenses. It is the Member's responsibility to ensure compliance with all relevant HM Revenue and Customs' requirements concerning payments, including expenses.

Gifts and Hospitality

- 1.4 not accept any gifts or hospitality which might, or might reasonably appear to, compromise personal judgement or integrity or place the Member under an improper obligation.
- 1.5 never canvass or seek gifts or hospitality.
- 1.6 comply with the rules set by the body on the acceptance of gifts and hospitality. Members should inform the Chief Executive (or equivalent) of any offer of gifts or hospitality and ensure that, where a gift or hospitality is accepted, this is recorded in a public register in line with the rules set by the body.

- 1.7 take responsibility for decisions on the acceptance of gifts or hospitality and ensure that any gifts or hospitality accepted can stand up to public scrutiny and will not bring the public office and the public body into disrepute.

Use of Official Resources

- 1.8 not misuse official resources⁶ for personal gain or for political purposes.
Deployment of such resources must be in line with the body's rules on their usage.

Use of Official Information

- 1.9 not misuse information gained in the course of public service for personal gain or for political purpose⁷.
- 1.10 not disclose any information which is confidential in nature or which is provided in confidence without authority. This duty continues to apply after the Member has left the board.

Political Activity

- 1.11 In their public role, Members should be, and be seen to be, politically impartial and not to occupy a paid party-political post or hold a particularly sensitive or high-profile role in a political party. The Member should abstain from all controversial political activity and comply with the principles set out in Cabinet Office rules on attendance at party conferences⁸ and on conduct during the period prior to elections and referendums, whether local or national.⁹
- 1.12 On matters directly related to the work of the body, Members should not make political statements or engage in any other political activity.
- 1.13 Members should inform the Chair, Chief Executive and/or the parent/sponsor department before undertaking any significant political activity. Subject to the above, they may engage in political activity but should, at all times, remain conscious of their responsibilities as a board Member and exercise proper discretion.

⁶ This includes facilities, equipment, stationery, telephony and other services.

⁷ Board Members who misuse information gained by virtue of their position may be liable for breach of confidence under common law or may commit a criminal offence under insider dealing legislation.

⁹ www.gov.uk/government/publications/election-guidance-for-civil-servants including compliance with the Data Protection Act 2018

1.14 MPs, Members of the House of Lords, Members of a devolved legislature, directly elected mayors, local councillors or police and crime commissioners are exempt from these requirements. There is no bar on such representatives taking a political party whip relating to their political role. They must exercise proper discretion on matters directly related to the work of the body and recognise that certain political activities may be incompatible with their role as a board Member, not allow themselves to become embroiled in matters of political controversy.

1.15 In their official capacity, Members should be even-handed in all dealings with political parties.

2. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

2.1 When accepting an appointment to the public body Members should consider if any conflicts of interest arise from their private interests or by virtue of any other roles held. They should consider, with advice from the appointing department how these should best be managed, and agree these with the organisation.

2.2 Members should ensure that no conflict arises, or could reasonably be perceived to arise, between their public duties and private interests, financial or otherwise.

2.3 Members shall comply with the rules of the body on handling conflicts of interests. As a minimum, these will require Members to declare publicly, usually in the body's register of interests, any private financial or non-financial interests of the Member, or of close family, which may, or may be perceived to, conflict with public duties.¹⁰ The rules will also require Members not to participate in a discussion or determination of matters in which they have a financial interest. In matters in which they have a non-financial interest, the Member should not participate in the discussion or determination of a matter where the interest might suggest a danger of bias.¹¹

2.4 It is the Member's responsibility to ensure they are familiar with the body's rules on handling conflicts of interests, that they comply with these rules and that the record in the body's public register of Members' interests is accurate and up-to-date.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES AS A BOARD MEMBER, INCLUDING NON-BOARD COMMITTEE MEMBERS

During their term of office, Members are expected to conduct themselves in the following ways:

¹⁰ In general, all financial interests should be declared. When considering what non-financial interests should be declared, you should ask yourself whether a member of the public, acting reasonably, would consider that the interest in question might influence your words, actions or decisions.

¹¹ These are common law provisions.

- 3.1 play a full and active role in the work of the body. To fulfil their duties and responsibilities responsibly and, at all times, act in good faith and in the best interests of the body.
- 3.2 promote an inclusive and diverse culture in the body. Their actions should help create an environment where different perspectives and backgrounds are encouraged and valued.
- 3.3 deal with the public and their affairs fairly, efficiently, promptly, effectively and sensitively and not act in a way that unjustifiably favours or discriminates against particular individuals or interests.
- 3.4 not to harass, bully or act inappropriately towards or discriminate towards others. Such behaviour is not consistent with what is expected of Board Members and will not be tolerated.
- 3.5 comply with any statutory or administrative requirements relating to the post.¹²
- 3.6 respect the principle of collective decision-making and corporate responsibility. This means that, once the board has made a decision, that decision should be supported.¹³
- 3.7 not use, or attempt to use, the opportunity of public service to promote personal interests or those of any connected person, firm, business or other organisation.
- 3.8 inform the sponsor department of the body of any bankruptcy, current police investigation, unspent criminal conviction or disqualification as a company director in advance of appointment, or should any such instances occur during the appointment.
- 3.9 inform the sponsor department of the body of any change in circumstances which results in becoming bankrupt, subject to a police investigation, convicted of a criminal offence or disqualified from being a company director.
- 3.10 The Chair has additional responsibilities as in leading the board/body and in ensuring that the principles covered in the Codes of Conduct for Board Members and Staff (where applicable) are upheld.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES TOWARDS EMPLOYEES

- 4.1 treat any staff employed by the body with courtesy and respect. It is expected that employees will show Members the same consideration in return.

¹² In the case of a body incorporated under the Companies Act <https://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2006/46/contents> or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order <http://www.legislation.gov.uk/nisi/1986/1032>, you will also be subject to the duties of directors under company law. In the case of a body that has charitable status, you will also be subject to the duties of trustees under charities law.

¹³ This does not apply to departmental non-executive board Members, whose role is to advise and challenge the board and department.

4.2 not to ask or encourage employees to act in any way which would conflict with their own Code of Conduct.

5. SOCIAL MEDIA

5.1 Social media is a public forum and the same considerations, including the provisions of this Code, apply as would to speaking in public or writing something for publication, either officially or in a personal capacity. When engaging with social media, at all times respect confidentiality, financial, legal and personal information.

5.2 Where any personal social media accounts are used and make reference or link to the public role, the Member should take care to ensure that it is clear in what capacity they are acting.

6. RAISING CONCERNS

6.1 Members are to ensure that the body has an open, transparent and safe working environment where employees feel able to speak up and raise concerns, and complaints procedures are clearly communicated to them.

6.2 If any Member has a concern about a possible breach of this Code, a concern that they or any staff of the body are being asked to act in contravention of their own code of conduct, or a concern about misconduct or wrong doing in any other areas, then they have a responsibility to raise that internally with the chair of the body or the Permanent Secretary of the sponsor department as appropriate.

7. REGISTERING AND DECLARING INTERESTS

7.1 Members must, within 28 days of taking office as a Member, notify the Board's Monitoring Officer of any disclosable pecuniary interests as defined by regulations made by the Secretary of State, where the pecuniary interest is the Member's, their spouse's or civil partner's, or is the pecuniary interest of someone with whom the Member is living as a husband or wife, or as if they were civil partners.

7.2 A Member must disclose the interest at any meeting of the Board at which they are present, where they have a disclosable interest in any matter being considered and where the matter is not a 'sensitive interest'.

7.3 Following any disclosure of an interest not on the Board's register or the subject of pending notification, the Member must notify the Monitoring Officer of the interest within 28 days beginning with the date of disclosure.

7.4 Unless dispensation has been granted, a Member may not participate in any discussion of, vote on, or discharge any function related to the matter in which s/he has a pecuniary interest as defined by regulations made by the Secretary of State. The Member must withdraw from the room or chamber when the meeting discusses and votes on the matter.

7.5 For the purposes of this Part, “meeting” means any meeting of

- a. the Board;
- b. the Executive Committee of the Board; or
- c. any of the Board’s committees or sub-committees.

7.6 For the purposes of this Part, a “sensitive issue” is described as a Member or co-opted Member having an interest, and the nature of the interest being such that the Member or co-opted Member, and the Board’s Monitoring Officer, consider that the disclosure of the details of the interest could lead to the Member or co-opted Member, or a person connected with the Member or co-opted Member, being subject to violence or intimidation.

8. REGISTRATION OF GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY
